

Brigadier Stu Nasse OBE was commissioned into the REME in 1997. He has undertaken command appointments in armoured and aviation engineering roles, including operational deployments to Bosnia, Iraq and Afghanistan. He commanded 7 Aviation Support Battalion, responsible for engineering support to the UK attack and recce helicopter fleets, as well as nascent UAS capabilities. Brig Nasse's staff career has been varied - Army Commitments, DCOS 7 Armoured Brigade (The Desert Rats), the Army Command Review, Army Strategy and lately the Army's Rapid Acquisition Team which had significant success. In October 2024, he assumed his current role as the Head of Land Capability Coalitions for UK Defence, and the Lead for the multinational Drone Capability Coalition in support of Ukraine.
